JOSEPH ENGLE

PROVIDENCE — Joseph Engle, 94, of 1 Jackson Walkway, founder in 1922 of the Engle Tire Co., died Sept. 8 at the Summit Medical Center. He was the husband of the late Ida L. (Schwartz) Engle.

Born in Lithuania, a son of the late Abraham and Minna Engle, he lived in Providence for 70 years. He previously lived in Boston.

Engle began working in the tire industry in 1918. He was a former member of the board of directors of the National Association of Independent Tire Dealers.

He was a member of Temple Sinai. He was a member of the former Temple Beth Israel, and had been a member of Temple Torat Yisrael and the Congregation Share Zedek-Sons of Abraham.

Engle was a member of the Rhode Island Historical Society, and Harmony Lodge, F & AM. He was a past chairman of the board of the Touro Fraternal Association, and a past chancellor commander of the Knights of Pythias. He was a former chairman of the board of the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association.

He leaves three sons, Melvin S. Engle and Leonard Engle, both of Providence, and Robert S. Engle of Cranston; 8 grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Sept. 9 at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

ENGLE,
Joseph
