

FAIN,
Ida

IDA FAIN, 88, formerly of Providence, a clerical worker for the Veterans Administration in New York City for 25 years before retiring 20 years ago, died yesterday at Philip Hulitar Hospice Care Inpatient Center.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Isaac and Rose (Sinenberg) Fain, she lived in New York from 1950 to 1992 before moving to Cherry Hill Manor in Johnston.

Miss Fain had been a bookkeeper at Miriam Hospital for several years. She was a life member of Hadassah and a member of the Brotherhood Synagogue in New York City.

She leaves three nieces, Roberta Arsac of Cranston, Sharron Brandt of Hartsdale, N.Y., and Cheryl Fain of Washington, D.C.; and four nephews, Robert Fain of Providence, Richard Fain of Cranston, Gilbert Fain of East Freetown, Mass., and Herbert Fain in Washington. She was a sister of the late Edith Woods and Daniel, Robert, Harry and Simon Fain.
