

FAIN, TOBY

pg 12-5-2000 Cranston

TOBY RUTH FAIN, of Meshanticut Valley Parkway, a physical therapist and real estate salesperson, died yesterday at the Elmhurst Extended Care Facility, Providence.

She was the wife of Robert Fain. Born in Pittsburgh, a daughter of the late Max and Hazel (Pinsker) Lemelman, she lived in Cranston for five years, previously residing in Providence.

Mrs. Fain established and ran the Birth Defect Information and Evaluation Center in Boston for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts from 1964 to 1969. She was a physical therapist for the State of Rhode Island from 1969 to 1975, and set up a program to mainstream disabled children into the public school system. She later worked as a physical therapist in the Pawtucket School Department for 15 years, and was a real estate salesperson from 1987 to 1992.

She was a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, D.T. Watson School of Physical Therapy, and received her master's degree in public health from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

She was a member of Hadassah, and of Temple Emanu-El and Kulanu, and coordinated a program for selective services at the temple. She was active in the women's division of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, David Fain, and a daughter, Dorie Fain, both of Chicago; and a brother, Elliot Lemelman of Hollywood, Fla.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Temple Emanu-El, Sessions Street at Morris Avenue, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
