

AARON H. FALCOFSKY, 53, of Torrington Drive, a community living aide at state-operated facilities for the past 18 years, died Thursday at the Roger Williams Medical Center. He was the husband of Joyce (Schneider) Falcofsky.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Saul and Jennie (Lucksniensky) Falcofsky, he lived in Warwick for many years.

Mr. Falcofsky had been the principal of the Hebrew Schools at the former Temple Beth Am, now Temple Am David, and at Temple Sinai, Cranston. He had been a leader of the Rhode Island Jewish Fraternal Association, where he was currently the secretary, treasurer and a member of the board of directors. He also was a former president and secretary of the association.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Ari and Eric Falcofsky, both of Warwick, and a brother, Thomas Falcofsky of Creve Coeur, Missouri.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road.
