SAMUEL FARBER

Funeral services for Samuel Farber, 88, of 996-A Hope Street, who died Saturday after a year's illness, were held Monday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was the husband of Ida (Kempler) Farber.

Born in Austria, April 4, 1878, a son of the late Jacob and Paizel Farber, he had lived in Providence for the last six years, previously residing in Pawtucket for 55 years.

Mr. Farber, founder of the Farber Company, sheet metal works firm, on Division Street, Pawtucket, 45 years ago, had been retired for the last 10 years.

He was a life member of the Pawtucket Lodge of Elks and a member of the Henry Friedman Lodge of B'nai B'rith, Congregation Ohawe Sholom of Pawtucket and Touro Synagogue, Newport.

Besides his wife, he leaves three sons, Jacob S. of Providence, Melville G. of Frankfurt, Germany, and Louis Farber of Tucson, Ariz; four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
