SAMUEL M. FEER, 90, of 173 Sessions St., Providence, a salesman for the Balfred Floor Covering Co. for 48 years before retiring in 1982, died Wednesday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Frances (Ginsburg) Feer.

Born in Russia, he was a son of the late Max and Fruma (Berzansky) Feer. He lived in Providence for 58 years and previously had lived in Boston.

Mr. Feer was a member of the former Congregation Sons of Abraham, and was a member of its board of directors and a president of its Mens' Club. He also was a member of Temple Emanu-El, where he was a member of the Mens' Club and Leisure Club. He was a member of the Majestic Senior Guild of Cranston, and the Doric Lodge, AF&AM, Cranston.

During World War II Mr. Feer served in the Rhode Island State Guard.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Phyllis Silverstein of Lincoln, and a grandson.

The funeral service will be Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

FEER,
Samuel
