Dr. Gerald Feinberg

Newport podiatrist for 30 years dies in Fla.; was R.I. Podiatry Assn. president
MIAMI, Fla. — Dr. Gerald Feinberg, 69, a podiatrist who practiced in Newport for more than 30 years before retiring in 1974, died yesterday at Parkway General Hospital, North Miami, after three months' illness. He and his wife, Esther (Ackerman) Feinberg, lived at 1200 Miami Lakes, North Miami.

He attended the University of Rhode Island and was a graduate of the Rhode Island College of Podiatry in 1933. He also was a graduate of the New England College of Podiatry. He was past president of the Rhode Island Podiatry Association, and formerly served on its licensing board.

During World War II, he was the chairman of the war service of B'nai B'rith in Newport. He also was a well-known ham radio operator in the Newport area.

Dr. Feinberg was a past treasurer of Touro Synagogue, was active in the Boy Scouts, a member of the Knights of Pythias and a board member of the National Jewish Hospital, Denver.

Born in Malden, Mass., Feb. 14, 1909, he was a son of the late Morris and Ida (Goldberg) Feinberg.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Daniel Feinberg of Burke, Va.; a daughter, Leslie Zelder Feinberg of Cambridge, Mass.; two brothers, Dr. Banice Feinberg of East Providence and Norman Feinberg of St. Petersburg, Fla., and four grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. at Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
