

Saul E. R. Feinberg

Former Providence Man,
57, Dies In New York

Saul E. R. Feinberg, 57, of 280 Cole Ave., Providence, a public relations counselor, died yesterday in New York City after a short illness. He was the husband of Mrs. Sara (Sobiloff) Feinberg.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a son of the late Morris and Esther Feinberg, he had been a resident of Providence 45 years. Mr. Feinberg was former secretary and treasurer of Candy Mart, Inc. before going into public relations work 10 years ago. He attended Northeastern Law School.

Mr. Feinberg was a member of the board of trustees of Temple Emanu-El, a past president of the Jewish Community Center, a member of the board of trustees of the Jewish Home for the Aged, a member of Roosevelt Lodge, F. and A.M., and a member of the board of the General Jewish Committee.

Besides his wife, survivors include a daughter, Miss Irma Z. Feinberg of Providence, and three brothers, Dr. Banice Feinberg and Norman L. of Providence, and Dr. Gerald G. Feinberg of Newport.

Funeral services will be held today at 3 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Memorial week will be at the late residence.
