

RI Her. 7-1-93

SYDNEY FEINBERG

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — Sydney S. Feinberg, 89, of 4200 Hillcrest Drive died Sunday in Hollywood. He was the husband of Lillian (Shapiro) Feinberg.

Born in Fall River, Mass., a son of the late Harry and Anna (Smolensky) Feinberg, he moved to Hollywood in 1969.

Feinberg was a director of the Fall River Trust, now the Bank of Boston, and president and chairman of the United States Trunk Co., and its successor, the United States Luggage Corp., until retiring in 1965.

He was a director of the former Truesdale Hospital, and a member of the United Jewish Appeal, the Zionist Order of America, the Rotary Club, the Jewish Home for the Aged, Temple Beth-El, B'nai B'rith, the Fall River Chamber of Commerce, also served as its president, and was a member of the Mount Hope Masonic Lodge. He was a former president of the Luggage and Leather Goods Manufacturers Association of America, and a member of its board of directors for many years.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Steven S. Feinberg of Boston; a daughter, Harriet Sadow of Chappaqua, N.Y., and five grandchildren.

The funeral service was held today, July 1, at 11 a.m. at the Fisher Memorial Chapel, 422 N. Main St., Fall River. Burial was in Temple Cemetery, Fall River. ✓

FEINBERG,
Sydney S.