Arthur H. Feiner

Providence lawyer was chairman of YMCA board of directors

NARRAGANSETT — Arthur H. Feiner, 75, of Central Street, a partner in the Providence law firm of Feiner, Winston & Greenwald, died yesterday in the Jane Brown unit of Rhode Island Hospital after a week's illness. He was the husband of Esther (Gordon) Feiner.

A lawyer for more than 50 years, he earned his law degree at Harvard Law School in 1925 after graduating in 1922 from Brown University.

He was the first to hold the job of assistant city solicitor in Providence.

The chairman of the Providence YMCA board of directors, he was a former chairman of the Public Utilities Commission Hearing Board and the Rhode Island Board of Bar Examiners. Mr. Feiner also was a member of Temple Beth-El, Providence Elks and the Rhode Island Bar Association.

A son of the late Aaron and Amelia (Zwiebel) Feiner, he was born in Providence Jan. 4, 1902.

Beside his wife, survivors are a son, Gordon Feiner of Narragansett; a brother, Leonard A. Feiner of Providence, and a grandson.

The funeral service was to be held today at 11 a.m. in the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
