

Jack Z. Feit dies; ex-superintendent of Hasbro Industries

PROVIDENCE — Jack Z. Feit, 74, of 35 Sessions St. died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Ann (Stepak) Feit.

Mr. Feit was a superintendent at Hasbro Industries, Pawtucket, for 45 years before retiring eight years ago. In 1951, he was a supervisor of the Hasbro Company's construction of the first pencil manufacturing company in Israel. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Men's Club, Congregation Sons of Abraham-Shaar Zedeck, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Providence Hebrew Day School and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association. He was a volunteer worker at Miriam Hospital and the Jewish Home for the Aged since his retirement.

Born in New York City, a son of the late Isaac and Lena (Laufer) Feit, he lived in Providence for 52 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Dr. Irving Feit of New York City and Dr. Elliot Feit of Providence; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Nair of Silver Spring, Md.; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Fenichel of Far Rockaway, N.Y., Mrs. Gertrude Hassenfeld of Warwick, and four grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held today at 11 a.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue and Sessions Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Feit, Jack Z.
