

ARNOLD S. FELLMAN, 69, of 108 Deerfield Rd., a jewelry designer for the C. Ray Randall Mfg. Co. in North Attleboro, Mass., for many years, retiring 12 years ago, died yesterday at the Cedar Crest Nursing Home in Cranston. He was the husband of Jeanne (Wexler) Fellman of Cranston.

Born in Woonsocket, a son of the late Herbert and Stella (Pulver) Fellman, he lived in Cranston for the last 36 years, previously living in Providence. Mr. Fellman was an Army Air Corps veteran, and served in the Pacific theater. He attended the University of Rhode Island. Mr. Fellman was one of the founders of Temple Sinai in Cranston. He was an amateur photographer.

Surviving, besides his wife, are four sons, Bruce Fellman of North Stonington, Conn., Peter Fellman of Medfield, Mass., Andrew Fellman of North Bergen, N.J., and Robert Fellman of Peacedale; a daughter, Susan Fellman of New York City; a brother, Harris Fellman of McIntosh, Fla.; a sister, Yvette Goldberg of Stoughton, Mass., and six grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held on Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.

FELLMAN, Arnold S.

January 20, 1994. Residence: 108 Deerfield Rd., Cranston. Beloved husband of Jeanne (Wexler) Fellman. Devoted father of Bruce Fellman of North Stonington, Ct., Peter Fellman, Medfield, MA., Andrew Fellman of North Bergen, NJ, Susan Fellman of New York City and Robert Fellman of Peacedale, RI. Dear brother of Harris Fellman of McIntosh, FL., and Yvette Goldberg of Stoughton, MA. Loving grandfather of six grandchildren. Funeral services Sunday 11 a.m. at the MAX SUGERMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., (Corner of Doyle Ave.) In lieu of flowers contributions in his memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at his late residence Sunday through Tuesday 2-4, and 7-9 p.m.

FELLMAN,
Arnold