

FESSEL,
Rafael

FESSEL, Rafael

March 6, 1999. Residence: Cambridge, MA. Beloved son of the late Max and Helen (Oelbaum) Fessel. Devoted brother of Norbert Fessel of Barrington and Evelyn Brier of Providence. Graveside funeral services Monday, 2PM at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Alan Brier, 14 Westford St., Providence through Sunday morning. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.

RAFAEL FESSEL, 66, of Cambridge, Mass., a computer researcher at IBM in Cambridge for 20 years, died yesterday at Elmhurst Extended Care Facility, Providence.

Born in Berlin, Germany, a son of the late Max and Helen (Oelbaum) Fessel, he moved from Germany to Palestine, and then to Providence, where he lived for many years. He moved to Franconia, N.H., for 5 years, and then lived in Cambridge for 30 years.

Mr. Fessel received his bachelor's degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and his Ph.D. in nuclear physics from Purdue University.

He leaves a brother, Norbert Fessel of Barrington, and a sister, Evelyn Brier of Providence.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

BS 3-7-1999