Herbert Field

EAST FALMOUTH,
Mass. — Herbert Roy Field, 78, died June 17 at JML Care Center in Falmouth after a long illness. He was the husband of B. Joy (Deutch) Field.

Born in Providence, the son of the late Joseph and Anna Field, he lived in Falmouth for the past 15 years. He formerly lived in Boston and Providence, and was a winter resident of West Palm Beach, Fla.

He served in the Coast Guard during World War II.

As a young man he owned, and operated with his father, the Mathewson Toggery Shoppe in Providence. He worked most of his career as a manager for Design Housing Company of Boston, in real estate development, retiring ten years ago. One of his best known projects was the Jamaica Way Towers.

Mr. Field was a long-time member of the Masons and a founding member of the Falmouth Jewish Congregation.

Besides his wife, Mr. Field is survived by three sons, Andrew, of Mexico; Peter, of Palm Coast, Fla.; and David, of Reno, Nev.; a sister, Joan Soloway, of Boston;
two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Donations may be made to the Dana Farber Cancer Institute, 44 Binney St., Boston, 02115, or the Falmouth Jewish Congregation, 7 Hatchville Rd., Falmouth, 02536.

FIELD,
HERBERT
