JOSEPH FIELD

Funeral services for Joseph Field of 41 Burlington Street, founder and former proprietor of the Mathewson Toggery Shop, who died Tuesday, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Born in Poland on July 26, 1896, a son of the late Samuel and Frieda Field, he had been a resident of this city for 68 years.

Mr. Field, an Army veteran of World War I, was founder and had been proprietor of the Mathewson Toggery Shop for 45 years until retiring one month ago.

He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Men's Club, the Jewish Home for the Aged, B'nai B'rith Roger Williams Lodge, Hebrew Free Loan Association and the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan, Zionist Organization of America, Touro Fraternal Association, Rhode Island Jewish Fraternal Association, Rochambeau Post of the American Legion, and the Jewish War Veterans Post #23.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Anna (Zellermayer) Field, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Arnold Soloway of Newton, Mass.; one son, Herbert Field of Pawtucket; two sisters, Mrs. Henry Goldblatt and Mrs. Milton Frank, both of Providence; and six grandchildren. ✓
