

ANNE FINBERG

PLANTATION, Fla. — Anne Finberg, 75, of 7480 NW 17th St., formerly of Providence, died October 13, 1989, at Wanaque Convalescent Center, Haskell, N.J. She had been visiting her son, Edward M. Finberg, in Springfield, N.J., a month ago when she became ill. She was the widow of retired U.S. Air Force Col. Milton I. Finberg.

Born in Malden, Mass., she was the daughter of the late Max and Eva (Portman) Goldman, she lived in Woonsocket and Providence in her early years. Later she lived with her husband in various military bases throughout the country and also in Guam and Japan. In 1969 they settled in East Falmouth, Mass., where they took up summer residence, and wintered in Plantation.

She was a graduate of the former Bryant and Stratton Business School, now Bryant College. She was a Grey Lady Volunteer for many years, a member of Temple Beth-El, Providence.

In addition to her son, she leaves a daughter, Beverly F. Jacobson of Durham, N.H.; a son, Edward M. Finberg of Springfield, N.J.; a sister, Sally Chorney of Cranston; a brother, O. Richard Goldman of Buffalo, N.Y., and five grandchildren.

A funeral service was held Monday, October 16, at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. RJHER. 10/19/89

FINBERG, ANNE