Cranston

ABRAHAM FINE, 91, of Cedar Crest Nursing Centre, a retired salesman, died yesterday at the Center.

He was the husband of the late Lillian (Sullivan) Fine. Born in Providence, a son of the late Israel and Sonya Fine, he had lived in Cranston for 40 years before moving to East Providence 31 years ago. He moved back to Cranston six years ago.

He had been a salesman in various businesses for 40 years, most recently with the former Peerless department store for 20 years, retiring many years ago.

He was a member of the Elks Club, the Valley Country Club, West Warwick Country Club and Rehoboth Country Club. He was an avid golfer.

He leaves a son, David Fine of North Kingstown; a daughter, Barbara Jamieson of Cranston; and three granddaughters. He was the brother of the late James Fine.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
