

OBITUARIES

Jessie Gertrude Fine

PROVIDENCE — Jessie Gertrude Fine, 98, of 75 East St., "The Tockwotton Home", died Wednesday at the home. She was the wife of the late Samuel B. Fine.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Samuel and Annie Baker, she had been a Providence resident for the past 12 years, previously living in Attleboro.

She was associated with the former Fine's Inc., a retail department store in Attleboro for 45 years, before retiring over 20 years ago. She was the first woman member of the Attleboro Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Fine was a member of the first group serving as the Grey Ladies Association in World War I and also served in World War II, volunteering at the Beth Israel Hospital in Boston and Sturdy Memorial Hospital in Attleboro.

She was a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged Women's Association, the Pioneer Women and Hadassah. She was a member of the American Red Cross and the Quota Club of the Rotarians.

She leaves three sons, Alfred Fine of Providence, Allan Fine of Pawtucket and Harold Fine of Rehoboth, Mass.; a brother Carl Baker of Belmont, Mass.; two sisters, Eva Gordon of Brookline, Mass. and Esther Block of Randolph, Mass., eight grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

A graveside funeral service will be held on Sunday at 3 p.m. at Dodgeville Cemetery in Attleboro. ✓
