

FINE,
Pearl

PEARL FINE, 87, of 359 Smith St., a supervisor in the school lunch program in Attleboro for 47 years before retiring seven years ago, died yesterday at Sturdy Memorial Hospital. She was the widow of Samuel Fine.

Born in Worcester, a daughter of the late Elias and Ida (Levinson) Heitin, she lived in Attleboro for 65 years.

Mrs. Fine was a member of Congregation Agudas Achim and of its Sisterhood. She was a past president of the Quota Club, and a member of Hadasah. She also was a member of ORT, and of the Worcester Jewish Home for the Aged.

She leaves a son, Harold J. Fine of Rehoboth; two brothers, Harry Heitin of Worcester and Jack Heitin of Milford; seven grandchildren and a great-grandchild. She was the mother of the late Gerald Fine.

A graveside service will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Dodgeville Cemetery.

PSJ 9-3-1995

FINE, Pearl (Heitin)

September 2, 1995. Residence, 359 Smith St., Attleboro. Beloved wife of the late Samuel Fine. Devoted mother of Harold J. Fine of Rehoboth and the late Gerald Fine, dear sister of Harry Heitin of Worcester, MA and Jack Heitin of Milford, MA., loving grandmother of 7 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild. Also survived by several nieces and nephews. Graveside services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Dodgeville Cemetery, Attleboro. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to The Pearl Fine Scholarship Fund, c/o Attleboro High School. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Tuesday 7-9 p.m. and Wednesday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by The MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., corner of Doyle Ave.)