ERNEST FINEMAN, 88, of the Hebrew Rehabilitation Center for the Aged, 1200 Centre St., Boston, and formerly of Providence, a former hardware-store owner and cartographic technician, died Monday at the center.

He was the husband of the late Hildia C. (Greenberg) Fineman. Born in Providence, a son of the late Jacob and Annie (Garfinkel) Fineman, he had lived in Providence, and in Cocoa Beach and Merritt Island, Fla., before moving to Boston six years ago.

A graduate of Hope High School, he had attended the University of Rhode Island.

Mr. Fineman had been the proprietor of the Globe Hardware Store, in Fall River, and later had been as a cartographic technician for the Army Map Service, in West Warwick, until retiring in 1975.

An Army Air Forces veteran of World War II, he retired as an Air Force lieutenant colonel.

He leaves two sons, Charles S. Fineman of Cambridge and James D. Fineman of Manteo, N.C.; and a sister, Paula R. Gorobzov of Windsor, Conn. He was the brother of the late Saul Fineman, Molly Press, Rose Koppelman and Rebecca Newman.

A graveside funeral service will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick.
