

East Greenwich

HAROLD IRA FINK, 82, of 286 Varnum Drive, a retired auto-parts dealer, died Tuesday at the Miriam Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of the late Mary (Raleigh) Fink. Born in Providence, a son of the late Louis and Etta (Rakatansky) Fink, he had lived in Warwick before moving to East Greenwich.

He was the vice president of the former Louis Fink & Co., Providence, for 25 years, and then was the owner of King Auto Parts, Central Falls, before he retired 16 years ago.

He was a Navy veteran of World War II, serving in the Pacific, and a past commander of the Jewish War Veterans, Department of Rhode Island, and Post 533, Jewish War Veterans. He was a member of the VFW.

He was a founding member of Temple Am David, Warwick, a board member of Chased Schel Amess Association and the governing body of Lincoln Park Cemetery, and a member of the Touro Fraternal Association.

Mr. Fink was a member of Overseas Lodge 40, AF&AM, the Scottish Rite, the Palestine Temple, and past president of the Trowel Club.

He was a volunteer driver for Meals on Wheels for many years.

He leaves two sons, Sanford Fink, with whom he lived, and Harvey Fink of Brewerton, N.Y.; a brother, Jacob Fink of Cranston and Florida; a companion, Sylvia Feingold of North Dartmouth, Mass.; and 8 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Nathan and Paul Fink.

The funeral service will be held today at 12:30 p.m. in Temple Am David, 40 Gardiner St., Warwick. Burial with military honors will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
