

RIHER Obitua
4-14-67

FINK,
Louis

LOUIS FINK

Funeral services for Louis Fink, 80, of 99 Hillside Avenue, who died Sunday after an illness of one year, were held that afternoon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Rabbi Jacob Handler of Temple Beth Israel and Rev. Morris Drazin of Congregation Anshei-Kovno officiated. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was founder and past president of Louis Fink & Company, scrap metal dealers.

Mr. Fink operated his scrap metal firm on Ambrose Street for many years before his retirement in 1963. He lived at 189 Lenox Street before entering the Home for the Aged.

He was born in Russia, a son of the late Nathan and Lillian Fink, and had been a Providence resident for more than 50 years. He was the husband of the late Etta (Rakatansky) Fink.

He was a member and past president of Congregation Anshei-Kovno, a member of Temple Beth Israel, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Hebrew Free Loan Association, the Chevra Kadisha Association, the Chased Schell Ames Association, the Hebrew Sheltering Society and the Vaad Hakashruth.

He is survived by three sons, Harold Fink of Warwick, Nathan Fink of Providence, and Jacob Fink of Cranston; two sisters, Mrs. Zalmon Bernstein of Providence and Mrs. Adie Kastner of Newark, N.J.; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.