

Selma Finkle

PROVIDENCE — Mrs. Selma Finkle, 72, of 2 Jackson Walkway died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. She was the wife of Archie Finkle.

She was a former officer of the Meeting Street School and past president of the Providence Section of the Council of Jewish Women.

Mrs. Finkle was a graduate of Radcliffe College, class of 1928, and attended the New England Conservatory of Music.

Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Dr. Abraham and Rose (Hurwitz) Hurwitz, she was a resident of Providence for 46 years.

Her husband is her only survivor.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

FINKLE, SELMA
(HURWITZ)

The Evening Bulletin, Thursday, October 30, 1980

FINKLE, Selma (Hurwitz)

October 29, 1980. Residence: 2 Jackson Walkway. Providence. Beloved wife of Archie Finkle. Funeral services will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to the Meeting St. School. Shiva will be private.