PHILIP FINKLESTEIN, 81, of 225 New London Ave., a retired salesman, died yesterday at Our Lady of Fatima Hospital, North Providence.

He was the husband of Marion (Seigal) Finklestein. Born in Providence, a son of the late Abraham and Sarah (Krauss) Finklestein, he had lived in Warwick for 39 years before moving to Cranston 10 years ago.

Mr. Finklestein had been a salesman at Sears & Roebuck, formerly on North Main Street in Providence, for 35 years, retiring 22 years ago, and was a member of the Sears Retirement Club.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, serving in Europe as a tech sergeant at Headquarters Command Delta Base.

He was a member of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, the Cranston Senior Guild, and the former Jewish Bowling Congress.

He was a former member of Temple Am-David, and its Men's Club.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, David Stein of Rio Vista, Calif.; a daughter, Beth Canaan of Cranston; a sister, Beatrice Sturbakov of Sharon, Mass.; and five grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Ethel Mandell.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
