

CRANSTON

FISCHER, BILLIE LEE

Fischer, Billie Lee, 82, died Wednesday, October 27, 2021 at home. She was the beloved wife of Charles Fischer for 60 years. Born in Haverhill, MA, a daughter of the late Percy and Hannah (Gordon) Finberg, she had lived in Cranston for 60 years, previously living in Boston where she graduated from Boston University. She worked for the Cranston Fire Department as an administrator and was a beloved part of their community, retiring in 2019. Prior to the Fire Department, Billie worked at James Kaplan Jewelers. She was a longstanding member of Temple Sinai and an avid mah jongg and canasta player. Devoted mother of Robin Fischer Blatt (Robert) of Cherry Hill, NJ, Dr. Peter Fischer (Cheryl) of North Easton, MA and Dr. Bruce Fischer (Bori) of Boca Raton, FL. Dear sister of the late Adele Kay and Lois Silver. Loving grandmother of Samantha, Michael,

Rachel, Aaron, David and Ben. Funeral services will be held TODAY (Thursday) at 1:30 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Avenue, Cranston, RI. Masks are required for all mourners. Shiva will be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Temple Sinai in Cranston, HopeHealth Hospice, or the charity of your choice. For online condolences and Zoom link, please visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.

