Jerome Fish

CRANSTON — Jerome Fish, 74, of 114 Lambert St., a former sales representative, died Thursday at Miriam Hospital after a six-month illness. He was the husband of Florence (Lang) Fish.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Michael and Dora (Rosenbloom) Fish, he lived in Cranston for more than 40 years.

Mr. Fish worked for various furniture manufacturers for 35 years until retiring six months ago. He was a graduate of the Boston University School of Business in 1932 and the Boston University Law School in 1934.

He was a former financial secretary and board member of Temple Torat Yisrael, a former board member of the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Jewish Board of Education, and a former Cranston chairman of the Jewish Federation of R.I.

A 32nd-degree Mason, he was a member of Overseas Lodge F & AM. He was a World War II Army veteran and a member of the Cranston Post, American Legion, Post 23 of the Jewish War Veterans, and a former district committeeman of the Boy Scouts of America. He received the Shofar Award from the National Jewish Committee on Scouting in 1983.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Dr. Richard H. Fish of Berkeley, Calif., and Robert A. Fish of New York City; a sister, Mrs. Lillian Lamport of Warwick, and two grandsons.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.
