

Cranston
P.J.B. 42-28-1998

MARTIN FISH, 68, of 43 Dartmouth Rd., the owner, along with his wife, of M.J.'s Shoe Biz, died yesterday at Roger Williams Medical Center after a two-month illness. He was the husband of Joan (Cohen) Fish.

Born in New York City, he was a son of the late Max and Rose (Weisberg) Fish.

Mr. Fish was an Army veteran of the Korean War. He was a 1950 graduate of Bryant College, a member of the AARP, and a former member of Roosevelt Lodge 42 F & AM.

He had a long career in the shoe business, first as a salesman for many Providence shoe stores while in college, and after serving in the war he was the buyer for the former John Pilling Shoe Co. After its closing, he was general manager for a shoe factory in Puerto Rico, and later became a vice president of the former Shoe Corp. of America in Columbus, Ohio. He was vice president of the former King's Department Stores, shoe division, in Massachusetts. After he and his wife returned to Rhode Island, they soon founded M.J.'s Shoe Biz.

Besides his wife, he leaves a brother, Warren Fish of Cranston, and two nieces.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Swan Point Cemetery.

*FISH,
Martin*

FISH, Martin
"Marty"

April 27, 1998. Beloved husband of Joan (Cohen) Fish. Residence: 43 Dartmouth Rd., Cranston. Dear brother of Warren Fish, Cranston. Dear uncle of Deborah Fish, Arlene Lantini, and two great-nephews. Funeral service 1 p.m. Wednesday at MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope St. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Memorial observance at this late residence Wednesday 7-9 p.m., and Thursday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.