PROVIDENCE

FISHBEIN, ROSE CELIA

(ROME), 84, of Providence, RI passed away September 3, 2007. She was the beloved wife of the late Mel Fishbein to whom she was married for 56 years. She was the daughter of the late Abraham and Eva (Barel) Rome.

Rose touched the lives of all who knew her with her kindness, generosity of spirit and joy, whether at the RI Heart Assn., Brown University (John Hay Library and Dept. of Engineering), Mel's Restaurant Supply, Cook's Connection, Ziegfelds', or Coffee Exchange.

She is survived by three children, and their families to whom she was completely devoted: Charles Fishbein of Providence and his wife Sandra; Bill Fishbein of Santa Fe, NM and his wife Donna; Deborah Fishbein Adams of Boston and her husband Ashley; and four grandchildren, Jacob and Adam Fishbein and Rebecca and Hannah Adams. She also leaves and loved dearly her sister-in-law Celia Mack, her niece Gale Rudolph, nephew Elliott Buckler, and grandnephew Jason Rudolph. She is preceded in death by her sisters, Trudy Marmer (Rome) and Francis Brodsky (Rome), both of Los Angeles, her sister-in-law Esther Abrich, her niece Arlene Marmer and her nephews Bobby and Jerry Brodsky.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, Sept. 5th at 1:00 PM at Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 222 Richmond Street, Providence, RI 02903. Shiva will be observed at the home of Charles and Sandra Fishbein, 108 Woodbine St., Prov., Wed. 7-9, Thur. 2-4 and 7-9, and Fri. 2-4 PM.

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
