

Rose Fishbein

PROVIDENCE — Rose Fishbein, 85, a resident of the Jewish Home for the Aged for the last three years, a stenographer for the former Hopkins and Son Pharmaceutical Co. in Brooklyn, N.Y., for 40 years before retiring 20 years ago, died yesterday at the home.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Eva (Silverman) Fishbein. She lived in Brooklyn most of her life, and most recently lived in East Greenwich and Cranston.

Miss Fishbein was a life member of Hadassah, and was a member of ORT, Brandeis Women's Association, and Temple Sinai and its sisterhood.

She leaves a sister, Bessie Fishbein of East Greenwich.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at noon at Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.
