Frederick Fishman

Frederick Fishman of Warwick, R.I., died August 2 at New England Deaconess Hospital in Boston. He was 64.

Born in Providence, R.I., Fishman was a son of the late Benjamin and Ruth (Harris) Fishman. He moved to Warwick in 1955.

Fishman was the owner of the former Fred's Fruit & Produce Market in South Providence from 1949-1956. He then became associated with the former Save-Rite Catalog Showroom Co., and was merchandise manager at its Woonsocket, R.I., store until retiring three years ago. Fishman was previously merchandise manager at the East Providence store for eight years. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association and Doric Lodge AF & AM.

He was the husband of Frimette (Rubin) Fishman. He also leaves his sons, Bruce Fishman of Sharon, Robert Fishman of Scituate, R.I., Stuart Fishman of Charlestown, R.I., and Neil Fishman of Glastonbury, Conn., and seven grandchildren. He was the brother of Minnie Gordon of Providence.

Funeral services were held on August 3 at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel in Providence. Interment was at Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.
