FISHMAN,
DR. LeROY

Dr. LeRoy Fishman

PAWTUCKET — Dr. LeRoy "Roy" Fishman, 70, of 603 East Ave., a dentist for 45 years, retiring two years ago, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Gladys (Robbins) Fishman.

He was born in Providence, a son of the late Sarah and Dr. Abraham P. Fishman, a well-known general practitioner in the Providence area, and lived in Pawtucket for 25 years.

Dr. Fishman's home and office was at 603 East Ave., Pawtucket. He also had an office at 111 Waterman St., Providence.

He was a graduate of Providence College and Tufts University Dental School, class of 1937. During World War II, he was a lieutenant commander in the Navy Dental Corps, stationed with the U. S. Marine Corps in the South Pacific.

Dr. Fishman was a member of the Pawtucket, Providence and Rhode Island Dental Societies and the American Dental Association.

He was on the staffs of Miriam and Rhode Island Hospitals. He was a member of Touro Fraternal Association and the Kirkbrae Country Club of Lincoln.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Bass of Hollywood, Fla., and Mrs. Cecile Skoultchi of Providence.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
