

FORMAN, JEROME

9-16-2001

RI Jew. Her. 9/6/2001

JEROME S.

FORMAN

SAN DIEGO, Calif.

— Jerome "Jerry" Forman died May 1. He was a supervisor with the Internal Revenue Service in Providence for 33 years, before moving to San Diego, Calif., in 1975. He was the husband of Harriet Forman.

While living in Rhode Island, he was a member of Temple Beth-El and its brotherhood, where he enjoyed bowling with its league.

He was a graduate of Bryant College where he majored in accounting. He was also affiliated with many other organizations in Rhode Island and while stationed in Springfield, Mass., he served in the Armed Forces. He became a Mason in Chicopee Falls, Mass.

While living in San Diego, he was a member of Temple Beth Israel and its Brotherhood.

He was an avid walker and very often joined walks sponsored by Walkabout International in San Diego — an organization founded by his son, Larry Forman, who is now a resident of Del Mar, California.

Besides his wife, who is a former school teacher in Pawtucket, he is survived by a son, Larry, a professor of computer sciences at City College in San Diego; a brother, Milton P. Forman of Warwick, R.I.; and grandchildren, Jenay and Joel.

---

Services were held at Cypress View Mausoleum in San Diego, Calif. Arrangements were made by Am Israel Mortuary.