

FOSTER, STANLEY

Stanley A. Foster, 90

WARWICK, R.I. - Stanley A. Foster, of Tamarisk, died May 14 at Epoch on Blackstone. He was the beloved husband of Bella (Woled) Foster for 64 years.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Harold and Rebecca (Schneider) Foster, he had lived in Cranston for 48 years before moving to Tamarisk. Stanley was a postal service employee and an interior designer. He was a World War II Army veteran serving in the European Theater. He served as chairman of the Central High School Class of '41 Reunion Committee. He was a member of Temple Torat Yisrael and was a volunteer there.

Having attended Pratt Institute, he possessed many artistic skills. He designed storefront displays for the former Susan's Clothing Store on Hope Street, Martin Barnes in Wayland Square and Murray's Appliance Store.

He loved the arts. and was a great fan of film, opera, plays and music and a huge fan of Judy Garland and Barbara Streisand.

He enjoyed watching tennis. He was a voracious reader of fiction and was a frequent visitor at the William Hall Library in Edgewood. He was an avid knitter and hook rug artist.

He was the devoted father of Harris Foster of Franklin Park, N.J., and Jon Foster (Dianne Middlemiss) of Scituate. Brother of the late Frederick and Ruth Lillian Foster. Grandfather of Hannah and Ari.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, 450 Brookline Ave., Boston, Mass. 02215.