JOSEPH FOX, 80, of Lafayette Street, former owner and operator of Fox TV Repair, died Monday while at work at Building 19.

He was the husband of Pearl (Nudel) Fox. Born in Central Falls, a son of the late Philip and Celia (Ferdman) Fox, he had lived in Pawtucket for more than 50 years, previously living in Central Falls.

Mr. Fox was the owner and operator of the former Fox TV Repair Co. He retired in 1988. He later worked at Building 19 as a TV technician and furniture salesman. He also taught TV repair at Rhode Island Radio School.

Mr. Fox was an Army veteran of World War II and a member of the Jewish War Veterans and B'nai B'rith.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Gary Fox of Bethesda, Md.; a daughter, Sharon Lasky of Sharon, Mass.; and two grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Sarah Abowitt.

The funeral service will be held this afternoon at 1:30 in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Sharon (Mass.) Memorial Park.
