

FREEDMAN,
Joseph

Joseph Freedman

DETROIT, Mich. — Joseph Freedman, 86, of 1908 Lafayette Towers West, president and chairman of the James and Lynelle Holden Charitable Foundation, in Detroit since 1967, died yesterday at home.

Born in Manchester, England, a son of the late Joel and Annie (Snyder) Freedman, he lived in Providence since he was a child, and moving to New York in 1927. He lived in Detroit since 1937.

Mr. Freedman was a 1926 graduate of Brown University, receiving the Phi Beta Kappa Award in his junior year. The next year he received a master's degree from Harvard University. He was a trustee of the Matilda R. Wilson Charity Fund in Detroit, and a patron of the Founders Society of the Detroit Institute of Arts. He established a scholarship fund at Brown University in his parents' memory.

He leaves a sister, Fannie Greco, and two brothers, Michael and Hyman Freedman, all of Warwick.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
