

died 11-10
PJB 11-12-05

FRIEDMAN,
SAUL

PROVIDENCE 11-12

 FRIEDMAN, SAUL, 90, of Scottsdale, AZ, formerly of Providence, died Thursday in Scottsdale. He was the husband of the late Estelle (Moverman) Friedman. Born in Rock Island, IL, a son of the late Benjamin and Rebecca (Lieberman) Friedman, he had lived in RI for most of his life.

He was a graduate of Classical High School, attended University of RI and received his LLB from Boston University Law School. He practiced law since 1938 in Rhode Island. He was an honorary member of the RI Bar Association, admitted to practice before US District Court and First Circuit Court of Appeals, a fellow of the RI Bar Association, and Probate Judge of the City of Cranston 1959-1971. He was Charter member of National College of Probate Judges and its RI representative, Senior partner of Friedman & Kessler, and inducted in 1998 into The Hillard Society of Boston University School of Law.

He was Chairman of First Ward Republican Committee, Cranston for 26 years; delegate to Republican National Convention 1960; initiated "Veterans for Eisenhower" in 1951. There is on display at Gettysburg, PA a Republican Memorial which includes the name of "Judge Saul Friedman who arose to represent his congressional district at the 27th Republican National Convention at Chicago commemorating the 100th Anniversary of Abraham Lincoln". He was a founding member and Past President and