Shirley L. Friedman, 83

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FLA. -

Shirley L. Friedman of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., formerly of Providence, died Aug. 21. She was the daughter of Benjamin and Etta Bigney.

She graduated from Hope High School and immediately joined the business world, working for Davis & Davis and G.H. Walker brokerage firms. After her marriage to Murray Friedman, she joined him in his catalog showroom company, where they created a successful business with more than 250 employees.

She enjoyed playing mahjong, bridge, canasta and golf. She was a member of Ledgemont Country Club, Ballen Isles Country Club and Temple Beth-El in Providence and Temple Judea in Palm Beach Gardens. She was a life member of Hadasah and a world traveler, with an enormous zest for life.

She is survived by her husband of 64 years, Murray Friedman; sons, Alan (Carol) Friedman, Brian (Bobbie) Friedman and Gary Friedman; granddaughters Lauren (Richard) Koblick and Allison Friedman and brother Arnold (Marilyn) Bigney. She was predeceased by her brother Paul Bigney. She will be missed by her loving family and friends.

Contributions in her name may be made to the American Cancer Society, 621 Clearwater Park Rd., West Palm Beach, Fla. 33401.
