

William Frucht

Former manager in Pawtucket
of Saltzman's Men's Store

WARWICK — William Frucht, 83, of Villa Del Rio, 309 Greenwich Ave., manager of the former Saltzman's Men's Store in Pawtucket for many years before retiring in 1973, died today at home. He was the husband of Lena (Rosenberg) Frucht.

Born in Central Falls, he was a son of the late Harry and Sarah (Riskin) Frucht. He lived in Pawtucket most of his life before moving to Warwick last year.

Mr. Frucht was a member of Temple Beth-El, the Majestic Senior Guild, the Henry Freeman Lodge of B'nai B'rith, and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Beside his wife, he leaves a daughter, Enid R. Tober of Warwick, and four grandchildren. He was the father of the late Murray A. Frucht, and the brother of the late Benjamin F., Joseph F. and Anna Frucht.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
