GALKIN,
Samuel.

The Evening Bulletin

, Monday, February 3, 1975

GALKIN, Samuel

February 2, 1975. Widower of Celia (Silverman) Galkin. Funeral services to which relatives and friends are invited will be held Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. at the Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers contributions in his memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by the Sugarman Memorial Chapel.

Samuel Galkin

PROVIDENCE — Samuel Galkin, 74, of 458 Pine St., died Sunday after a two-month illness. He was the husband of the late Celia (Silverman) Galkin.

Mr. Galkin was a retired machinist. He had worked for various tool companies before he retired 12 years ago.

A lifelong Providence resident, he was a son of the late Rubin and Gussie (Goldberg) Galkin.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Estelle DeFusco of West Lake Village, Calif., and Mrs. Charlotte Fink of Kansas City, Mo.; two brothers, Morris Galkin of Woonsocket and Theodore Galkin of Riverside; five grandchildren, and two great grand-children.

A funeral service was held today at the Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

GALKIN, Samuel

RI HER 4-24-64

SAMUEL GALKIN

Funeral services for Samuel Galkin, 93, of 91 Sackett Street, who died on Saturday after a short illness, were held the following day at Temple Beth Israel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of the late Paulina (Shendel) Galkin, he was born in Russia on Feb. 23, 1871, a son of the late Theodore and Elizabeth Galkin.

Mr. Galkin had lived in Providence for 74 years. He was the former president of a Providence auto body firm, Galkin Co., which he established in 1900 and headed until his retirement 13 years ago.

He was the oldest living member of the Providence Rotary Club, an elder of Temple Beth Israel, a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the General Jewish Committee, and a charter member of Haggai Lodge B'nai B'rith, now Roger Williams Lodge.

Mr. Galkin was a charter member and first treasurer of the Jewish Community Center and was active in several community and charitable organizations.

Survivors include five sons, Arthur, Ira, Herman, Theodore and Joseph Galkin; one daughter, Mrs. Samuel I. Mamis; 11 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren, all of the Providence area.