GALKIN, SHIRLEY

PJ 8-17-01

Warwick

SHIRLEY M. GALKIN, 58, of 76 Peabody Drive, an office worker, died Wednesday at Rhode Island Hospital.

She was the wife of George J. Galkin. Born in Brookline, Mass., a daughter of Gerta (Baker) Mann of Miami, and the late Benjamin Mann, she had been a resident of Warwick for 31 years.

She worked in the trust department of Citizens Bank in Providence for 15 years.

She was a member of MADD. She was a former member of Temple Torat Yisrael and B'nai B'rith. She was a graduate of Boston University, Class of 1964.

Besides her husband and mother, she leaves a daughter, Stephanie Lynn Flanders of Manchester, N.H.; a brother, Martin Mann, and a sister, Barbara Mann, both of Boston; and a grandson.

The funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.

GALKIN, Shirley M. (Mann)

August 15, 2001. Residence, 76 Peabody Dr., Warwick. Beloved wife of George J. Galkin. Loving daughter of Gerta (Baker) Mann of Miami, FL and the late Benjamin Mann. Devoted mother of Stephanie Lynn Flanders and her husband Mark of Manchester, NH. Dear sister of Martin and Barbara Mann both of Boston. Cherished grandmother of Adam Benjamin Flanders. Funeral services Friday 1 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to the American Cancer Society, 400 Main St., Pawtucket, RI 02860 or your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Friday immediately following the funeral and Sunday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.