

GALKIN,
Theodore

THEODORE L. GALKIN, 93, of Scituate Ave., a retired foreman, died yesterday at Cedar Crest Nursing Centre.

He was the husband of the late Beatrice I. (Flanzbaum) Galkin. Born and raised in Providence, a son of the late Samuel and Pauline (Scheindel) Galkin, he had lived in Cranston for many years.

He was a graduate of Hope High School, where he was all-state in track, basketball and football.

Mr. Galkin had been a shipping foreman at American Insulated Wire Co., in Pawtucket, for 20 years before retiring 24 years ago.

He was a member of Redwood Lodge 32, AF&AM, and had also been a member of the former Roosevelt Lodge.

Mr. Galkin was a former member of Temple Emanu-El, and of Temple Beth Israel.

He leaves a son, George J. Galkin of Warwick; a granddaughter; and two great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Leo, Herman, Ira, Arthur and Joseph Galkin and Caroline Mammis.

The funeral service will be today at 1 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
