Ida Gan

With husband formerly ran supermarket, liquor stores

COVENTRY — Ida Gan, 96, of 10 Woodland Drive, died Thursday at the Coventry Health Center. She was the wife of the late Isador M. Gan.

Born in Russia, she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Bayla Shapiro and had been a resident of Warwick from 1911 until moving to Coventry in 1985.

She owned and operated, with her husband, the former I.M. Gan Super Market and I.M. Gan liquor stores in Warwick for 50 years, retiring 25 years ago. The first store was established in 1911, carrying license number 1.

Mrs. Gan was a life member of the Ladies Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged and was a charter member and founder of Temple Beth Sholom.

She leaves a son, Samuel A. Gan of Cranston and a sister, Ruth Israel of Miami Beach, Fla.

Graveside services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
