SAMUEL A. GAN, 89, of 353 Blackstone Blvd, a retired liquor retailer, died Tuesday at home.

He was the husband of the late Molly (Friedman) Gan. Born in Providence, the son of the late Isadore M. and Ida (Shapiro) Gan, he had lived in Providence for less than a year, having previously lived in Boynton Beach, Fla., and Cranston.

Before his retirement, he had operated IM Gan Market, a family-run business started in the 1920s, and then started IM Gan Liquors in Warwick, now operated by a member of the family.

He was a World War II veteran and served two tours of duty. He was a member of the Jewish War Veterans.

He was a graduate of Boston University, and a member of Boca Raton Country Club in Florida, and the BPOE.

He leaves a stepson, Robert A. Sweet of Cranston, and several stepnieces and stepnephews.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
