Harry Garelick

NORTH PROVIDENCE — Harry Garelick, 77, of the Louis Quisset Condominums, 61A Saddle Green, a salesman for the former Stadium Trading Co., Woonsocket, for 25 years before retiring in 1986, died yesterday at St. Joseph Hospital. He was the husband of Sophie (Sherman) Garelick.

Born in Woonsocket, a son of the late Jacob and Rose (Golden) Garelick, he lived in North Providence since 1986. He had also lived in Franklin, Mass.

Mr. Garelick was a former partner of Garelick Farms Inc., Franklin. He was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel, Woonsocket, and the B'nai B'rith. He was an honorary member of the Franklin Country Club, and a member of the North Providence Senior Citizens.

Besides his wife he leaves three sons, Max Garelick of Westport, Conn., Frank Garelick of North Providence, and John Garelick of Cambridge, Mass.; two sisters, Julia Baskin of Auburndale, Mass., Celia Silverstein of Revere, Mass., and three grandchildren. He was brother of the late Max, Israel Garelick, and Eva Green.

The funeral will be held today at 2:30 p.m. at Congregation B'nai Israel, Prospect Street. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery, Woonsocket.

Mary M. Cole

2-3-91
RSS

GARELICK, Harry

On February 2, 1991. Husband of Sophie (Sherman) Garelick. Residence, Louisquisset Condominiums, 61-A Saddle Green, North Providence, R.I. 02904. Father of Max, Frank and John Garelick. Brother of Julia Baskin and Celia Silverstein. Funeral Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in Congregation B'nai Israel, 224 Prospect St., Woonsocket. Arrangements under the direction of the Chevra Kaddisha and the Holt Funeral Home, 510 South Main St., Woonsocket. Shivah will be observed in Mr. Garelick's late residence Sunday evening; and Monday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.

GARELICK, HARRY