Mary Garr

PROVIDENCE — Mary Garr, 86, a Providence resident until moving to Oak Hill Nursing Home, 544 Pleasant St., Pawtucket, six months ago, died Monday at the home. She was the wife of the late Samuel Garr.

Born in Russia, she was a daughter of the late Isaac and Polly (Fine) Kanter. She had lived in Providence since 1921.

Mrs. Garr was a member of Temple Emanu-El and a life member of its sisterhood. She was a life member of Chapter No. 1, Order of the Eastern Star. She was a member of the Ladies Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Miriam Hospital's Women's Association, the Jewish Community Center, the Ladies Hebrew Union Aid, and the Providence Chapter of Hadassah.

Mrs. Garr was a Grey Lady during World War II and continued as a Grey Lady at the Veterans Administration Regional Medical Center for 15 years.

She leaves a son, Leonard P. Garr of Providence; one grandchild and a great-grandchild.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

GA 10/6/87

GARR, MARY