

GEDERMAN,
Harris

REF ID: A64
HARRIS M. GEDERMAN

Funeral services for Harris M. Gederman, 54, a self-employed plumber and a former member of the Providence Police Department, who died unexpectedly Monday, were held Wednesday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Evelyn (Brisson) Gederman, he was born in Providence on May 2, 1912, a son of the late Isadore and Fannie (Kessler) Gederman. He was a lifelong resident of Providence until moving to Cranston two months ago.

Mr. Gederman was the owner of I. Gederman & Son.

He was a member of Tifereth Israel and Congregation Sons of Zion, Providence Elks, Providence YMCA, and the Rhode Island Yacht Club. He served in the U.S. Navy for two years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Miss Lynne Gederman of New York City, and Mrs. Paul Croce of Cambridge, Mass.; one brother, Harry Gederman of North Providence; three sisters, Miss Claire Gederman, Mrs. Harry Dimond, and Mrs. Louis Micarelli, all of Providence, and one grandchild.