Providence

HARRY GEDERMAN, 80, of Melbourne, Fla., formerly of Providence, died yesterday at Wuesthoff Hospital, Rockledge, Fla. He was the husband of the late Blanche (Husted) Gederman.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Isadore and Fannie (Kessler) Gederman, he had lived in Providence before moving to St. Petersburg, Fla., in 1983. He had lived in Melbourne the last eight years.

Mr. Gederman was ticket manager of the former Rhode Island Auditorium. He was in charge of admission at the former Narragansett Race Track, and had been active in sales at Lincoln Downs Race Track.

He was a founding member of the former Oakland Avenue Synagogue, Providence, and had been a member of the former Congregation Sons of Zion when it was located on Orms Street, Providence.

He leaves a son, Harris J. Gederman of Greenville; a sister, Sallie Micarelli of Jupiter, Fla.; and six grandchildren. He was the uncle of Stanley Gederman, with whom he lived. He was the brother of the late Harris Gederman, Clare Gederman and Alma Dimond.

The funeral will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
