JEAN GELLER, 70, of Glengrove Street, a former office manager and teacher, died yesterday at Steere House, Providence.

She was the wife of Mitchell E. Geller. They were married for 50 years. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late David and Rose (Fineman) Krasnow, she had lived in Warwick before moving to Cranston 38 years ago.

Mrs. Geller had been an office manager at Twinco International for several years. She had also been a teacher and administrative aide at Cranston High School East and a secretary to the Cranston school building committee.

She served in the Coast Guard Auxiliary, Flotilla 708, for more than 20 years.

Mrs. Geller was one of the founders of the original Temple Am David in Warwick. A member of Temple Sinai, she had served as its first financial secretary and also volunteered on many temple committees.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Robert L. Geller of Pawtucket and Arnold M. Geller of Warwick; two daughters, Lorri L. Perry of Manassas, Va., and Meri R. Kennedy of Cranston; a brother, Arthur Krasnow of Cheltonham, Pa.; and five grandchildren.

A graveside funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Sinai Memorial Park, 100 Harrison Ave., Warwick.
