Marvin Geller

WARWICK — Marvin Geller, 57, of 99 Potomac Rd., a former executive with the Brier Manufacturing Co., Providence, for 28 years, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Miriam (Chorney) Geller.

A past president of Temple Beth Am-Beth David, and a member of its board of directors and Men's Club, he also was a member of the Touro Fraternal and Hebrew Free Loan Associations, the Jewish Home for the Aged, Waad Hacashruth and Chased Schel Amess Association.

A World War II Army Air Force veteran, he was a 1949 graduate of the former Rhode Island State College, now the University of Rhode Island.

Born in Paterson, N.J., he was a son of William Geller, and the late Ida Geller. He lived in Warwick for 27 years.

Besides his wife and father he leaves two sons, Steven B. Geller of Washington, D.C., Andrew B. Geller of Providence, and a sister, Sylvia Lisnoff of West Warwick.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
