Hyman Gerber

Hyman Gerber, one of the oldest Jewish residents of this city, died Tuesday evening after an illness of five days. He was in his 85th year.

Mr. Gerber was born in Russia and came to this country 48 years ago, settling in Providence. For several years he conducted a store on North Main Street, retiring about 15 years ago.

He was a charter member of the Sons of Zion Synagogue on Orms Street and a member of Superior Lodge, B'nth Abraham.

He is survived by seven sons, Harry of Hartford, Conn., Samuel of Washington, D. C., John and Philip of New York City and Albert, George and Benjamin Gerber of this city; one daughter, Mrs. William Raphael and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his daughter, 248 Slater Avenue.
